

Significant black people fact cards

Name: Trevor McDonald
Born: August, 1939
Lives: London, UK

Why he is important:

Trevor was a successful newsreader and journalist and has interviewed many famous people. He was given an OBE in 1999.

Name: Lenny Henry
Born: August, 1958
Lives: London, UK

Why he is important:

Lenny started Comic Relief, raising awareness of poverty in Africa. His charity work has helped to improve the lives of many poor people.

Name: Nelson Mandela
Born: July, 1918
Died: 2013
Lived: South Africa

Why he is important:

He was in jail for 27 years for campaigning for equality for black people in South Africa. He became president in 1994 and has received the Nobel Peace Prize.

Name: Maya Angelou
Born: April, 1928
Died: 2014
Lived: Missouri, USA

Why she is important:

Maya was a writer who spoke up for the rights of black people, especially black women, in the books, poems and plays she wrote.