

Significant black people fact cards

Name: Dianne Abbott
Born: September, 1953
Lives: London, UK

Why she is important:

Diane is the first black woman in the UK to become an MP. She is a role model for young black people who want to go into politics.

Name: Malorie Blackman
Born: February, 1962
Lives: London, UK

Why she is important:

She was the Children's Laureate from 2013-2015. She has written many books about racism and issues facing black people.

Name: Moira Stuart
Born: September, 1949
Lives: UK

Why she is important:

Moira was the first black female newsreader on UK television. In 2001, she was awarded an OBE for all her hard work in TV and radio.

Name: Ade Adepitan
Born: March, 1973
Lives: London, UK

Why he is important:

Ade is a paralympic athlete who has won bronze and gold medals. He does a lot of charity work and in 2005 received an MBE.