

Sentences in Spanish

Like, Dislike, Love

Like

To say you like something in Spanish, use the verb 'gustar' - to like. This verb needs a pronoun to indicate who likes something, so if you are referring to something you like, add the phrase 'me gusta' before the object. e.g. Me gusta el fútbol - I like football.

Practice by adding 'I like' to complete these sentences then read them out loud. Use the vocabulary list and the phonetic pronunciation guide to help you say the words correctly.

1. _____ el helado.
2. _____ la pizza.
3. _____ el dibujo.

Dislike

To say that you dislike something add a 'no' before the phrase 'to like', e.g. No me gusta la pizza - I don't like pizza. Practice finishing off the sentences below, to say you don't like these things - even if you do! Again, use the vocabulary list and the phonetic pronunciation guide to help you say the words correctly.

4. _____ las arañas.
5. _____ el coche.
6. _____ la espinaca.

Love

The verb encantar is used to talk about something you really like or love. It works in the same way as 'gustar'. Me encanta la música - I love music, Me encantan los dinosaurios - I love the dinosaurs. Finish off the sentences by saying you love these things. Use the vocabulary list to help.

7. _____ el sombrero.
8. _____ los gatos.
9. _____ el chocolate.

Important: When you are referring to a plural (more than one thing) add an -n to the end of gusta to make it correct! e.g. No me gustan las arañas.
