How to survive at Pontesbury Primary School

"We're moving house and you're going to a new school!" This is a sentence that would make any child feel anxious.

Nervous! Scared! Worried! These are how any child would be feeling if they were starting a new school.

Imagine this - life is good and you're happy at school, when out of the blue your parents ^{from} tell you they've bought a new house and you're moving to a new school! What if the children are mean? What if the teachers are really strict? What if the teaching assistants are crazy? If this sounds like your current predicament, then fear not: help is here! The first bit of good news is you're going to Pontesbury Primary School; the second is that this guide will help you to settle in in no time.

Equipment list

Fortunately, moving house is a long process, therefore you will have plenty of time to prepare. Use this time wisely to gather the following suggested equipment:

- uniform
- school shoes
- bag
